

Neurosurgery – Spine

To lead the nation in caring, healing, teaching and discovering

The Department of Neurosurgery at The University of Kansas Health System is seeking a board-certified/board-eligible Assistant or Associate Professor of Spine Surgery to join their world-class team. Our neurosciences program is the region's largest and consistently ranks among the nation's best.

We are pleased to offer:

- National Institute on Aging-designated Alzheimer's Disease Center
- Parkinson's Disease Center of Excellence recognized by the ALS Association
- Multiple Sclerosis Achievement Center
- Level 4 Epilepsy Center accredited by the National Association of Epilepsy Centers
- Advanced Comprehensive Stroke Center certified by The Joint Commission

Our innovative technology

- Intraoperative MRI (iMRI)
- 3D printer
- Brain mapping
- OmniTom® (advanced mobile CT scanner)
- Inspire® (revolutionary sleep apnea device)
- ROSA® (stereo electroencephalography robot)
- Virtual reality systems

Kansas City

- The Kansas City metro area has a bi-state population of more than 2 million.
- A "hidden gem," winning the award of America's 4th Most Cultured City by Travel + Leisure magazine.
- Affordable housing, including downtown lofts, suburban neighborhoods and rural properties.
- A robust arts scene, including symphony, ballet, theatre and museums.
- Sports enthusiasts can enjoy a variety of professional and collegiate sports.
- Learn more about Kansas City at thinkkc.com/with/kansashealthsystem.

For more information please contact:

Terri Houchen, MS

913-945-6756 | thouchen@kumc.edu
kansashealthsystem.com/physicianlink

We are an Equal Opportunity / Affirmative Action employer. All qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, national origin, age, protected veteran or disability status, or genetic information.

PMPC#836

