

Noninvasive Cardiologist

One of the top cardiology programs in the country known for their leadership in advancing the standard of heart care

The University of Kansas Health System is seeking a Noninvasive Cardiologist to join our team of nationally recognized heart care experts.

About the position and the program

Our board-certified physicians are well-respected as innovators in their field. As faculty members at the University of Kansas School of Medicine, they are leaders in cardiac research, pioneering new approaches for heart care and discovering breakthroughs that improve the lives of people in Kansas City and around the world.

- Seeking a noninvasive clinical cardiologist trained to perform clinical cardiology and diagnostic services to join our growing cardiovascular medicine team
- Must have completed a 3-year internal medicine residency and will have completed an accredited fellowship in cardiovascular diseases
- Certified by ABIM in cardiovascular disease
- The program provides multidisciplinary care in a highly collaborative environment
- Competitive salary and outstanding benefits

About The University of Kansas Hospital

- 910-bed academic medical center
- Since 2007, recognized among U.S. News & World Report's Best Hospitals
- Consistently earns national recognition for outstanding quality and safety
- Magnet-designated by ANCC since 2006
- Certified Comprehensive Cardiac Center by The Joint Commission

About Kansas City

- The Kansas City metro area has a bistate population of more than 2 million
- Affordable housing, including downtown lofts, suburban neighborhoods and rural properties
- Excellent school systems at all levels
- A robust arts scene, including symphony, ballet, theater and museums
- Sports enthusiasts can enjoy a variety of professional and collegiate sports

For more information, please contact

Terri Houchen, Physician Recruiter

816-739-9975 | thouchen@kumc.edu

We are an Equal Opportunity / Affirmative Action employer. All qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, national origin, age, protected veteran or disability status, or genetic information.

PMPC#1388

