Fraudulent COVID-19 Supplies

Craig Rohleder, System Senior Director of Supply Chain
Mgmt & Admin

Fraudulent COVID-19 Supplies

- FEMA has forwarded out the following information concerning COVID-19 supplies and personal protective respirator assessment.
- The U.S. Food and Drug Administration is issuing warning letters to firms for selling fraudulent products with claims to prevent, treat, mitigate, diagnose or cure coronavirus disease 2019 (COVID-19). Web: <https://www.fda.gov/consumers/health-fraud-scams/fraudulent-coronavirus-disease-2019-covid-19-products>
- FEMA would like to encourage anyone or any agency, business, or department that has concerns about potential counterfeit or fraudulent products be sent to: FDA-COVID-19-Fraudulent-Products@fda.hhs.gov. If possible, please include a description of the product along with a picture of the product and its labeling.
- In addition, the CDC maintains information regarding respirator assessment to support COVID-19 response. The following website: <https://www.cdc.gov/niosh/npptl/respirators/testing/NonNIOSHresults.html>
